

Doing family history online

Across

3. When searching online, what should you do to make a record of any useful websites you come across
4. What is the name of The National Archives online catalogue?
6. By taking the free course at <http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/palaeography/> you will learn to read old _____
7. The website via which you can access the 1939 Register
8. The surname of a major British family history blogger

Down

1. The colloquial term for publishing a blog or website filled with family details to entice long-lost relations to get in touch
2. The name of the online tree-builder tool available via www.thegenealogist.co.uk
5. The online shop at www.hallofnames.org.uk selling family history goodies has a database of 1 million _____ with which you can customise your order

