

Improving your family history research skills

Across

2. The Latin-based word used for widow/widower
7. Rather than just rely on the index, you need to look at the _____ document
8. A register of which sort of documents can you investigate at <http://discovery.nationalarchives.gov.uk/manor-search>
10. The linguistic term for 'Ye' as in 'Ye Olde Shoppe'!

Down

1. The collection of maps that came about in the 1800s due to rural resistance to paying taxes in kind
3. The surname of the man who stipulated that parishes must register baptisms, marriages and burials from 1538
4. The name of the local court sessions that are useful for tracing ancestors involved in misdemeanours
5. The study of old handwriting
6. Which tends to be more accurate, a primary source or a secondary source?
9. The Latin for wife

