

Getting out and about with family history

Across

3. Vital for taking pictures of your day out
5. The term used for someone who loves gravestones
6. The nationwide programme of history-inspired events that take place annually in September are called the _____ Open Days

Down

1. Useful tool for helping to create shadow and therefore make old gravestones a little easier to read
2. The name of the UK's largest festival dedicated entirely to history
4. What must your batteries for your mobile phone etc be, when you set out for a family history trip?

